

In Conjunction with

Introduces the
Ziffit Zombies

What's a Ziffit zombie you ask?

Well, it's a creation from the Emmy Award winning mind of Bill Diamond & Bill Diamond Productions. The Ziffits have been around for many, many, years and made their comeback by debuting in the Toking with the Dead comic book series issue #2 in 2019. Bill recreated this masterpiece as an ongoing mini story within each of the comic books to follow. Now, from the mind of a master himself, they are being brought to live action in their very own film. When an intergalactic anomaly occurs, it changes the DNA of these once dormant plants bringing them to life.

How can you get your own Ziffit?

Bill has decided to offer an extremely limited quantity of 25 full size Ziffit puppets for collectors to sponsor that will be used in the upcoming film. Each one will be created and hand crafted by Bill Diamond Productions. numbered and signed by Bill himself. No two will be the same. Once the filming is complete, each sponsor will receive their very own film used Ziffit puppet to cherish forever.

If you've ever priced the cost of purchasing a custom puppet then you know they can be extremely costly. But because Bill is creating, manufacturing, and producing these amazing pieces he is able to offer them at the insanely low price of $2000.00 per puppet.

For more details and payment options on owning a piece of film history contact us at thetokingdead@gmail.com